TWO WERE KILLED IN SOUTH BOSTON

Two men were killed this afternoon by the cave-in of earth on Boston street, near Andrew square, South Boston, where they were digging the foundation for a new schoolhouse.

The news of the accident was sent to police headquarters. Calls for ambulances were sent in. Ambulances arrived on the scene and ambulances soon filled up.

The building to be erected is for a parochial school in connection with a Polish church.

The work was in charge of Martin McJannet. There were four men down in the trench that was being dug when McJannet was evidence of a cave-in.

He did not get out for your lives, he cried.

FIVE VOTES UNDER SUSPICION IN LODGE SCANDAL GROWING

The startling statement made over the name of Charles H. Copeland, legislative correspondent of the Fall River Globe, that three Republican members of the House were coerced into voting for the reelection of Henry Cabot Lodge, created a great sensation on Beacon Hill to-day.

With the votes of Curley and Murray, the total now is FIVE VOTES UNDER SUSPICION in the Lodge Senatorial Scandal.

The legislative correspondent of the Fall River Globe is well known to the legislators in both the Senate and House. He does not name the three Republicans. Neither does he name Curley and Murray. But in a paragraph which is intended to make it clear that Curley and Murray were coerced he says:

"The one violated his pledge to his party in return for a promise of something in the future, while the other did the same thing in return for a promise that he shall retain that which he has at present."

TWO COERCED BY THE BANKING INTERESTS

The above correspondent follows the statement that two members of the House were coerced by the banking interests into voting for the reelection of Henry Cabot Lodge.

The man, as it is said, was told that he would be given a substantial part of the legal business for his tract if he would vote for Lodge.

FRICK FRIEND TO WED FORTUNE

Henry C. Frick, his daughter Helen, and her companion, Miss Mary McNeil, who were engaged to be married, were today named as the Frick couple to wed on Friday, Jan. 27, at the Frick mansion, at 100 Madison street.

It is expected that Mr. Frick will be the best man, and that Miss McNeil will be the bride. The wedding will be a private affair, and will be held at the Frick mansion.

Surprise has been caused in Pittsburg by the announcement of the coming marriage of Mr. Frick, who is a widower and grandfather, to Miss McNeil.

The bride-to-be is less than half the age of Mr. Frick, who is past sixty. Miss McNeil came to Pittsburg from Tennessee six years ago and made her home with a cousin, who had married a Pittsburg man.

MINISTERS URGED TO VISIT PORTO RICO

Professor S. L. Butler of Boston University urged the Methodist ministers in the city to visit Porto Rico. He said that the island was a great field for Christian work, and that the Methodist church was the only one that was active there.

A MARVELOUS RECOVERY

Milton, Mass. Feb. 22.—A man named C. H. Foster, 180 Thatcher St., Milton, Mass., says: "I ran down so rapidly that I became thin and pale as a ghost. I was very much annoyed and I had sharp shooting pains in various parts of my body and

I grew tired and languid. I had the kidney secretions examined by a physician who said I was in bad shape and advised a change of climate. At that time, the urine was very dark and unnormal. I used half a dozen boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. During that time the backache left, appetite improved, weight picked up twenty pounds and I felt well and strong. The trouble never returned."

Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all dealers. Don't take a cheap imitation. Postum-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

THE CASE OF THE SECRET

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—The taking of testimony in the divorce suit which may separate Mr. Goodwin, the comedian, from his fourth wife, Ethel Goodwin, was begun today before J. Campbell Thompson, referee appointed by the Supreme Court.

It was reported that one of the contestants in the case had been settled before the hearing commenced, it related to the suit, and by the terms of the agreement the income from the $25,000 trust fund which Goodwin established for his wife when he married her in 1908 will be divided between them. The chief allegations are supported by depositions sworn to in the case. They charge that while Mr. Goodwin was playing at Delmar City last year he was particularly attentive to Miss Maud Adams, an actress.

According to the allegations Mr. Goodwin and Miss Adams had a secret rendezvous at night after the performance and that there were lively entertainments held at the house of Mr. Goodwin, which was the guest of honor. Goodwin denies all charges of infidelity and says that he was not in the city at the time of the alleged affair. He testified that he was in the city at the time of the alleged affair, but that he was not in the city at the time of the alleged affair.

Restraint with difficulty continually welled into her. The Cream, wife of Benjamin H. Cream, of the firm of Muliken, Cream & Co., appeared in the divorce court today of the Superior court. Her husband, and how she endeavored to have him committed to jail at last he told her he loved her and never had.

Mrs. Cream said that she married him in April, 1904, and for a while lived in West Newton and Newton. She said that her husband was a liar and by her testimony it was after marriage that he was arrested.

SANDY GETS CHANCE TO "MAKE GOOD" IN FIGHT WITH BARRY

RING STARS AFTER WOLGASTS' FIGHT

It looks as if there would be a new champion light heavyweight long before 1911 when the K. O. came from the youngster who had won every fight since January 1. Who it will be is the question that has the spectators quaking.

The best bunch of aspirants for the title in the history of the game are out to explore the future. It is true that there were more good lightweights in the gold old days, but who could say any one of the present crop with some, but never has there been such a wealth of material as now.

At Wolgast's now, the title fairly and naturally is being fought for. Sandy, who has been defeated by him in the past, is a real champion. He has been called a "sucker" by the crowd, but he has not been defeated by him in the past. He has been called a "sucker" by the crowd, but he has not been defeated by him in the past.

HARVARD FAVORITE IN HOCKEY STRUGGLE WITH CORNELL HERE

Freddie Welsh After Packey

Freddie Welsh of England is after Ad Wolfart, Owen Moran and Packey McFarland, especially the latter. In a letter received here today, Welsh says that he stands ready to meet any of the above trio after his bout with Matt Wells on February 27.

Welsh says that he would rather fight McFarland than any other man in the world. He declares that the reason he is after the Yankee has been to select the referee.

Cooking as a Fine Art

By BEATRICE FAIRFA

How oft you hear it said of a woman: "She is an excellent plain cook," and yet you don't really ~~mean~~ mean the words at all; they don't stick to.

But the good, plain cook holds the health of the entire family in her hands. The family fed on gross, half-cooked foods invariably acquires indigestion and related complexions.

A Few Rules

"The good, plain cook" feeds her family on wholesome food properly prepared.

When she makes a pie it is a good pie, not a soggy mass of fruit and pastry.

Her meats are neither raw nor burnt to a crisp. She knows that soup meat must cook the whole day in order to get the
